SILVER ANNIVERSARY SALUTE

Casale . . . Gatewood . . . Grba . . . Rodgers . . . McBride . . . Cerv . . . Chance . . . Bilko . . . Pearson . . . Fregosi . . . and Kluszewski formed the beginning — and started the history.

What began in 1960 as a simple outing to seek radio rights has since transgressed into a rich tradition.

Twenty-four years have passed since those early names donned an Angels uniform. And the memories that have ensued are countless. There have been no-hitters, including a perfect game; a Cy Young Award winner; an American League batting title recipient; an A.L. Most Valuable Player; and two division titles.

Gene Autry, the Angel's owner from their inception, certainly has a lot to be proud of. So do Halo fans, more than 32 million of 'em, who have walked through the turnstiles over the years in support of their club.

Hopefully, the year 1985 will bring more cause for celebration, not only because it's the Angels' 25th Anniversary, but because the new year is filled with optimism and excitement regarding another divisional title.

For the moment, however, let's take a look at the California Angels' past and re-live some of those memories on which the club has built its tradition:

APRIL

April 2, 1962 — In the first-ever "City Championship" game played before 5,181 in Palm Springs, shortstop Joe Koppe's third single of the day in the ninth inning brought home Leon Wagner with the winning run as the Angels edged the Dodgers, 6-5.

April 6, 1973 — In his first at-bat as a member of the Angels, future Hall of Famer Frank Robinson hit a solo home run to leadoff the second inning, the 523rd round-tripper of his career, to pace Nolan Ryan and the Angels to a 3-2 victory over Kansas City in the season opener at Anaheim Stadium. Robinson would eventually end his career with 586 home runs, placing him fifth on the all-time list.

April 9, 1966 — Anaheim Stadium was christened with an exhibition game between the Angels and the San Francisco Giants. A crowd of 40,474 walked through the turnstiles as the Giants clobbered the Angels, 9-3. The very next day the first home run was hit at Anaheim Stadium by . . . Willie Mays.

April 11, 1961 — Backed by three home runs — two by Ted Kluszewski and a solo from Bob Cerv — Eli Grba hurled the Angels to a 7-2 win over the Orioles at Baltimore in the organization's first major league game.

April 12, 1981 — With two-out in the top of the ninth, Rod Carew stole home with what proved to be the winning run as the Angels outlasted the Seattle Mariners, 8-6. Carew stole home off right-hander Dick Drago. It was the 19th time in the club's history such a thievery had been accomplished. No one has swiped home since.

April 13, 1982 — Seattle at California: After five hours, 24 minutes, game was suspended to following night (2-2, 17 innings).

April 14, 1982 — In the continuation of the game from the night before, Don Baylor got his fifth hit of game, a single in the 20th, was moved along on Doug DeCinces' sac bunt and singled home by Bob Boone as Angels won, 4-3. In the regular game Angels won it, 2-1, in 10 innings.

April 15, 1977 — A fifth-inning single by Seattle catcher Bob Stinson ruined Nolan Ryan's no-hit bid against the Mariners. After singling to left for the only Mariner hit of the game, Stinson was erased trying to steal second base. The Angels won the contest, 7-0.

April 17, 1962 — Playing in their first game at Dodger Stadium, the Angels lost a 5-3 decision to the Kansas City Royals before a turnout of 18,416. Ken McBride suffered the defeat.

April 19, 1966 — Anaheim Stadium hosted its first regular-season A.L. contest. Tommy John, then with the Chicago White Sox, scattered three hits over seven innings to beat the Angels, 3-1, before 31,660 in attendance. The Angels' lone run came in the second inning off the bat of left fielder Rick Reichardt, who belted the first home run to inaugurate the Big A.

April 20, 1966 — The Angels won their first game at Anaheim Stadium, edging the Chicago White Sox, 4-3, in 11 innings. Third baseman Paul Schaal had two hits and two RBI, while Joe Adcock brought Bob Rodgers home with the winning run on a single to right with two-out in the 11th.

April 23, 1980 — The Angels recorded their most one-sided victory against Minnesota, trouncing the Twins, 17-0, behind a 17-hit attack at Metropolitan Stadium. Ironically, there were no home runs. Shortstop Fred Patek and right fielder Al Cowens had three hits apiece, while Patek, Don Baylor and Rod Carew each drove in three runs. Bruce Kison was the recipient of all this charity. Kison, incidentally, surrendered only one hit, a one-out double to Ken Landreaux in the ninth.

April 27, 1961 — The Angels made their first appearance at Wrigley Field in Los Angeles and promptly lost a 4-2 verdict to Minnesota before 11,931. Eli Grba was tagged with the loss, while catcher Earl Averill hit the club's first home run at home.

MAY

May 1, 1966 — In a 9-1 loss at Boston, the Angels tied a club record by turning six double plays. The combination of nine double plays completed by both clubs also tied a major league record. Bobby Knoop became the first second baseman to take part in six double plays, while Jim Fregosi started five of them to tie a major league record for shortstops.

May 5, 1962 — Left-hander Bo Belinsky, 25 years old and in his first season with the Angels, tossed the organization's first no-hitter as he beat the Baltimore Orioles and Steve Barber, 2-0. Belinsky struck out nine in recording his fourth straight win. The southpaw induced Dave Nicholson to foul out to Felix Torrez for the final out.

May 6, 1972 — The shortest game in the club's history — one hour and 31 minutes — took place at Anaheim Stadium as the Angels' Andy Messersmith out-quicked Jim Lonborg and the Milwaukee Brewers, 2-0.

May 9, 1969 — With Angels left-hander George Brunet on the mound, Boston's Mike Andrews at third base and Carl Yastrzemski at the plate, Yaz, destined for the Hall of Fame, smashed the longest home run in Anaheim Stadium history — measured at a distance of 518 feet over the right field wall.

May 10, 1975 — Southpaw Frank Tanana won his second game and posted his second shutout in as many decisions as the left-hander guided the Angels to a 2-0 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Tanana gave up four hits and struck out 13, en route to a league-leading 269 Ks.

May 11, 1977 — Bobby Bonds, Don Baylor and Hon Jackson opened the second inning against Baltimore's Ross Grimsley by hitting consecutive home runs. Bonds' tater went to center field, while Baylor and Jackson's were sent over the wall in left. The feat has been duplicated on two other occasions: August 28, 1962, Lee Thomas, Leon Wagner and Bob Rodgers turned the trick against Kansas City and more recently, Reggie Jackson, Brian Downing and Bobby Grich accomplished the task against Boston, April 24, 1984.

JIM FREGOSI

May 17, 1970 — Clyde Wright improved his record to 5-2 with a 7-1 victory over Blue Moon Odom and the Oakland A's. Wright would go on to post 22 victories during the 1970 campaign, earning A.L. Comeback Player of the Year honors in the process. The 22 wins still stands as the most accomplished by a Halos pitcher (Nolan Ryan also won 22 games in 1974).

May 18, 1961 — Ryne Duren tied a major league record, becoming the eighth pitcher to strike out four men in an inning. He accomplished the feat in the seventh frame against the Chicago White Sox, but lost the game, 6-4, on a passed ball.

May 20, 1968 — Shortstop Jim Fregosi hit for the cycle to lead the Angels to an 11-inning, 5-4 win over Boston. Fregosi, the only player in the club's history to hit for the cycle twice (the first time was July 28, 1964), homered in first inning, tripled in the second, doubled in the eighth and singled in the 11th . . . by the way, Fregosi's single drove home the winning run.

May 21, 1973 — Second baseman Sandy Alomar replaced Bill Grabarkewitz for defensive purposes in the top of the eighth inning to keep his consecutive game streak alive. Alas, however, the streak was broken the next night at 648 games (it started on May 16, 1969), establishing a club record that still stands.

May 23, 1964 — Second baseman Bobby Knoop hit a grand slam home run off New York right-hander Bill Stafford, the first major league grand slam of Knoop's career, to muscle the Angels past the Bronx Bombers, 9-5, at Yankee Stadium.

May 26, 1976 — Chicago White Sox southpaw Ken Brett edged the Angels by a 1-0 count in 11 innings at Anaheim Stadium. This contest was interesting in that Brett had a no-hitter for 8 2/3 innings before Jerry Remy was credited with a "tainted" single off the third baseman's glove. Designated-hitter Bill Melton added a single to left in the 10th for the Halos before the White Sox pushed across a run off Don Kirkwood in the 11th and held on to win.

May 27, 1969 — Harold "Lefty" Phillips was named to replace Bill Rigney as field manager of the Angels. Rigney, the club's first skipper, held the job for eight-plus seasons.

May 28, 1980 — Only nine players in Angels history have enjoyed a perfect 5-for-5 day at the plate. On this day it was Dickie Thon's turn. He was performing the role of the team's designated hitter. Thon had four singles and a double as the Halos edged Texas, 6-5.

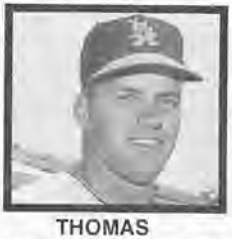
May 30, 1977 — Frank Tanana dropped a 1-0 verdict to Dennis Eckersley as the Cleveland Indians right-hander tossed a no-hitter at the Halos. Eckersley pitched to one batter over the minimum in striking out 12 hitters. The only two players to reach base were Tony Solaita, who walked in the first inning, and Bobby Bonds, who struck out in the eighth but reached first when Eckersley was credited with a wild pitch on strike three.

May 30, 1978 — The Halos suffered their worst defeat in history, losing to the Chicago White Sox by a 17-2 margin. The setback established records for most runs allowed by an Angels pitching staff and most runs allowed in one inning (11 runs on nine hits, three errors and a walk in the fifth inning).

JUNE

June 1, 1975 — Right-handed flame-thrower Nolan Ryan pitched the fourth of what would become a major league record five no-hitters. The 1-0 gem was tossed against the Baltimore Orioles as Ryan struck out nine and walked four. He fanned Bobby Grich for the final out of the game. Dave Chalk drove in Mickey Rivers for the only run in the third inning.

June 2, 1964 — En route to a 20-win season and Cy Young Award honors, Dean Chance struck out 15 batters in beating the Boston Red Sox, 1-0, at Anaheim Stadium. Chance, who would finish the year with a 20-9 record and a 1.65 ERA, limited the Red Sox to two hits, both singles.



THOMAS

MORAN

RUDI

June 6, 1961 — In the first game of a twi-night double-header at Baltimore, Lee Thomas belted the Angels' first grand slam in propelling the Halos to a 7-3 victory. Thomas' slam came in the second inning off Orioles hurler Milt Pappas.

June 9, 1961 — Ryne Duren, in the second game of a double-header at Boston, set an American League record by striking out seven consecutive men. He got Frank Malzone on a called strike to end the first inning, struck out Pete Runnels, Jim Pagliaroni and Don Buddin in the second (all on called strikes), and then fanned Mike Fornieles (swinging), Chuck Schilling (swinging) and Gary Geiger (called) in the third. Carl Yastrzemski broke the spell by grounding out to open the fourth. Duren would go on to wiff 11 Red Sox in 6 2/3 innings of work in posting a 5-1 verdict.

June 10, 1962 — Second baseman Billy Moran's 58-game errorless streak ended in the nightcap of a twin-bill with the Kansas City Athletics on a first-inning error.

June 12, 1977 — In flexing his muscles at the plate, left fielder Joe Rudi drove in five runs with a pair of homers as the Angels cruised to an 11-4 victory against Cleveland. Following an off day, Rudi came back and turned the trick again — hitting a pair of home runs and driving in five — in a Halos 12-9 triumph vs. Minnesota.

June 14, 1974 — In setting a club record for most strikeouts by a pitcher in an extra-inning contest, Nolan Ryan fanned 19 Red Sox over 13 innings and yet was not involved in the final decision as the Angels took 15 innings to nip Boston 4-3. Luis Tiant went all the way in getting tagged with the defeat. Cecil Cooper accounted for six of Ryan's 19 K's.

June 15, 1964 — The Anaheim City Council adopted an ordinance to establish Anaheim Stadium, Inc., a non-profit corporation. It was a 15-man board authorized by the State of California and composed of Orange County business leaders. This board negotiated the building contract, arranged for the selling of private corporate bonds to pay for the cost of the land and construction of the stadium to the city of Anaheim for a period of 35 years or until the bonds were retired.

June 17, 1971 — California selected left-hander Frank Tanana as its first round pick in the free agent draft. Tanana would eventually win 102 games for the Angels in his Halo career, second on the club's all-time list behind Nolan Ryan's 138.

June 18, 1961 — The longest road trip in club history came to an end as the Angels completed a 27-game tour with a 5-3, 11-inning win at Kansas City. The trip opened May 30 and saw the club play seven double-headers in an 11-day span. The Angels concluded the trip with an 8-18 record and one tie.

June 20, 1980 — In a 20-2 mauling of the Red Sox in Boston, the Angels tied a club record by blasting 26 hits, including six home runs, a triple and six doubles. Every Angel player in the lineup recorded at least two hits with Freddie Patek and Bobby Grich garnering four apiece. Patek, in fact, enjoyed his finest day at the plate with a double and three home runs for seven RBI.

June 21, 1975 — Frank Tanana set an A.L. southpaw record with 17 strikeouts as California hosted Texas.

June 24, 1962 — The Angels beat the Twins at Minnesota in an unusual double-header, 3-2 (in 10 innings) and 7-6. Not only did the Halos win both games in their final at bat — something they would do 18 times that season — but Dean Chance was involved in both victories, earning a win in the first and coming back to get credit with a save in the second.

June 26, 1970 — In a game at Kansas City with two on and no one out in the fifth inning, the Angels turned their first triple play as Amos Otis' sizzling grounder was fielded by Chico Ruiz, who stepped on the bag at third and then fired to Sandy Alomar at second, who then flipped over to Billy Cowan at first to complete the three-out parlay.

June 30, 1980 — Rod Carew, in continuing his consistency over an illustrious career, was named Player of the Month after finishing with a .389 average including 13 doubles and 16 RBI. Carew ended 1980 with a .331 average. He hit better than .300 for 15 consecutive seasons. That total is surpassed only by an elite few: Ted Williams (16), Babe Ruth, Eddie Collins, Stan Musial and Honus Wagner (each with 17), Tris Speaker (18), Cap Anson (20) and Ty Cobb (23).

JULY

July 3, 1970 — Left-hander Clyde Wright became the second Angels pitcher to throw a no-hitter as he defeated the Oakland A's, 4-0. Wright walked three and struck out one (Reggie Jackson) as he induced Felipe Alou to hit into a game-ending double play.

July 4, 1962 — The Angels moved into first place as they swept a double-header from the Senators in Washington. Leon Wagner's home run in the nightcap made him the first American Leaguer to hit a home run in every park that season. More than 3,000 fans greeted the Angels upon their return to Los Angeles that night.

July 6, 1983 — Fred Lynn hit the first grand slam in All-Star history to lead the American League to a 13-3 victory. Lynn was honored for his effort by being named the game's MVP.

ROD CAREW

July 7, 1964 — Angels pitcher Dean Chance and shortstop Jim Fregosi turned in impressive performances for the American League in the 35th edition of baseball's All-Star Classic. Chance hurled the first three innings, allowing only two hits, while Fregosi went 1-for-4 with an RBI and a run scored.

July 9, 1972 — Nolan Ryan struck out eight consecutive Boston hitters, including the side (Carlton Fisk, Bob Burda and Juan Beniquez) on nine pitches in the second inning, in posting a 3-0 victory. Ryan finished with 16 strikeouts.

July 11, 1967 — At the time the largest gathering ever to witness a baseball game at Anaheim Stadium — 46,309 — saw the National League continue its domination of the A.L. by posting a 2-1, 15-inning victory in the 38th renewal of the All-Star Game. Tony Perez' home run off Jim "Catfish" Hunter in the top of the 15th proved to be the margin of victory.

July 15, 1973 — Nolan Ryan pitched his second no-hitter of the '73 season as he overpowered the Detroit Tigers at Tiger Stadium, 6-0. Ryan became only the fifth pitcher to hurl two no-hitters in a single season. Others were Virgil Trucks, Allie Reynolds, Jim Maloney and Johnny Vander Meer, who posted consecutive no-hitters in 1938.

July 20, 1963 — With Detroit's Jim Bunning on the mound, diminutive Albie Pearson and Lee Thomas put together a double-steal which resulted in the first theft of home (by Pearson) in Angels history.

July 21, 1962 — Ken McBride went the distance in posting his second consecutive shutout as the Angels topped Cleveland, 4-0. McBride struck out four and allowed four hits in winning his 10th consecutive contest, establishing a club record.

McBRIDE

BAYLOR

CHANCE

July 2, 1976 — Left-hander Andy Hassler worked six strong innings of relief, allowing only one run, but the lone tally was enough to tag him with the loss in a 6-5 Minnesota victory against the Angels. Hassler's defeat was significant in that it was setback No. 17 without a win in a drought that began on May 4, 1975. Hassler's 17 straight defeats set a club record.

July 22, 1983 — Brian Downing saw his American League record for most consecutive errorless games by an outfielder snapped at 224 against Detroit when he was charged with an error on Chet Lemon's difficult line drive in the sixth inning.

July 23, 1979 — Joe Rudi belted a grand slam off Boston's Dick Drago in the first inning to lead the Angels to a 9-2 win over the Red Sox. It was Rudi's third grand slam of the season and his seventh as an Angel to set a club record.

July 25, 1965 — In a day game at Fenway Park in Boston, Angels center fielder Jose Cardenal stole home for the third time in a single season, setting a team record. Cardenal also holds the Angels record for the most steals of home (4) by an individual.

July 28, 1964 — Mickey Mantle hit a home run off Dean Chance in the seventh inning, but it wasn't enough as the Halos prevailed, 3-1. Mantle's home run was significant in that it was the only run the Yankees scored off Chance all season in 50 innings of work.

July 31, 1979 — Don Baylor ended an incredible offensive month by going 1-for-4 at the plate in a game against Seattle. Baylor, who would earn Player of the Month honors for his performance, finished July with 34 RBI, a club record, and a .349 average. The month also saw Baylor earn "Player of the Week" honors for his achievements during the week of July 2-8 when he hit .426 (11-for-26) with five home runs and 13 RBI.

NOLAN RYAN

AUGUST

August 2, 1966 — With the score tied at five-all and one out in the bottom of the 11th inning, Angels third baseman Paul Schaal belted a shot over the head of New York Yankees center fielder Mickey Mantle and swiftly circled the bases for an inside-the-park home run, the first ever recorded at Anaheim Stadium.

August 6, 1961 — In a pinch-hit role, rookie catcher Tom Satriano recorded the first home run — and hit — of his career off Baltimore hurler Dick Hall only to see the feat washed away by rain. Satriano had to wait six more days before he was able to record his first hit as a major leaguer and that, too, ironically was a home run off Minnesota's Jim "Mudcat" Grant.

August 7, 1977 — California completed a three-game sweep of the Orioles at Anaheim Stadium with a 6-3 win over Jim Palmer. The contest featured a two-run homer by Angel right fielder Bobby Bonds, his fifth straight game with a home run to establish a club record.

August 8, 1982 — Capping a week which saw him hit .500 (12/24) with 10 runs scored, a double, eight home runs and 12 RBI, third baseman Doug DeCinces connected for three home runs at Seattle in a 9-5 win. It was the second time in a week DeCinces totaled three HRs in a game to become the sixth player in A.L. history to have two three-home run games in the same season. For his efforts DeCinces was named A.L. "Player of the Week."

August 9, 1964 — At Cleveland, the Angels recorded their fourth straight shutout over the Tribe by a score of 9-0 with Dean Chance picking up the victory. Marcelino Lopez hurled the first whitewash, Fred Newman the second and Chance the final two to establish a club record in that category.

August 12, 1974 — Right-hander Nolan Ryan set an American League record, fanning 19 Red Sox en route to a 4-2 triumph. Ryan struck out the side on three occasions and K'd Rico Petrocelli in all four of his trips to the plate. Pinch-hitter Bernie Carbo was Ryan's last victim in the ninth.

August 20, 1974 — In a contest against Detroit at Anaheim Stadium, Nolan Ryan recorded the fastest clocking of a pitched baseball when he was timed at 100.9 miles per hour. The clocking was made by scientists from Rockwell International. Despite striking out 19 Tigers, Ryan lost the game to Detroit's Mickey Lolich in 11 innings, 1-0.

August 25, 1979 — California scored at least one run every inning except the seventh and ninth en route to a 24-2 crunching of the Toronto Blue Jays at Exhibition Stadium. The onslaught set a record for most runs in a single game as well as most hits (26). Don Baylor led the way with two home runs and a career-high eight RBI. Each starter had at least two hits while six players had three-or-more. California started the scoring with eight runs in the top of the first and never slowed down. Of the club's 26 hits, 13 were for extra bases.

August 26, 1964 — The City of Anaheim and the Del Webb Construction Co. officially signed a contract to build a multipurpose stadium to seat approximately 50,000 fans at a maximum cost of $16 million. There were four other bidders to construct the facility, later to be simply known as "Anaheim Stadium," but none could meet the price or deadline of Webb.

August 31, 1964 — Ground was broken to commence construction of Anaheim Stadium. Angels owner Gene Autry, Del Webb and then Anaheim Mayor Odra Chandler spaded the first shovels of soil in a clearing surrounded by an orange grove and a corn field.

GENE AUTRY & ODRA CHANDLER

SEPTEMBER

September 2, 1965 — The Angels announced they would open the 1966 season in Anaheim Stadium with a seating capacity of 43,204.

September 3, 1966 — The Angels set a team record by stealing home twice in the same game — in fact, it occurred in the same inning as Jim Fregosi and Paul Schaal both surprised the Washington Senators in the seventh frame of a 7-6 California win.

September 5, 1961 — Lee Thomas went 9-for-11 in a double-header at Kansas City with three home runs and eight RBI in the nightcap to tie a long-time major league mark for most hits in a twin-bill. Thomas also tied an American league record for most total bases in a double-header — 19 — originally set by Jim Tabor of Boston July 4, 1939.

September 9, 1971 — Second baseman Billy Parker, playing in his first game as a member of the California Angels, belted a home run with two-out in the bottom of the 12th inning to give the Angels a 3-2 victory. Parker is one of only 14 players to hit HRs in their first game as an Angel.

September 14, 1978 — The Angels clobbered five Texas pitchers for 13 runs in the ninth inning, a club record, as they breezed to a 16-1 victory with Don Aase going all the way for the win. Rick Miller, Lyman Bostock and Brian Downing had two hits each in the inning as the Halos collected a total of 10 hits in sending 18 men to the plate.

September 15, 1965 — Outfielder Rick Reichardt belted the Angels' final home run in Chavez Ravine as his blast in the 14th inning gave the Halos a 2-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

REGGIE

RIVERS

September 16, 1970 — Left-hander Clyde Wright scattered three hits and one run over nine innings to beat the Minnesota Twins, 5-1, and record his 20th victory of the season (against 11 losses). In posting win No. 20, Wright became the third Angel pitcher in history to perform such a feat.

September 17, 1967 and 1984 — In a 3-2 loss to the Angels at Anaheim Stadium, a young Oakland A's rookie belted his first major league home run to right field to leadoff the second inning. Angels hurler Jim Weaver surrendered the blast to Reggie Jackson . . . Seventeen years later to the day again at the Big A, Reggie recorded career HR No. 500 off Kansas City's Bud Black to open the seventh inning of a 10-1 loss.

September 18, 1966 — Beginning with a double off Boston's Jim Lonborg in the third inning, Angel shortstop Jim Fregosi started a stretch of eight consecutive hits which was ended the following day by Baltimore's Moe Drabowsky. Fregosi had six singles and a pair of doubles during the streak.

September 19, 1962 — Jim Fregosi became the first Angel player to hit an inside-the-park home run when he connected off Baltimore's Steve Barber with two runners on and one-out in the sixth. The unusual round-tripper was also the first ever recorded at Dodger Stadium where the Angels played from 1962-65.

September 22, 1977 — Right-hander Bert Blyleven, then pitching for the Texas Rangers, tossed the first no-hitter at the Angels in their history in posting a 6-0 victory.

September 25, 1979 — First baseman Rod Carew fielded Darrell Porter's ground ball and fed Frank Tanana at first base for the final out as the Angels upended the Kansas City Royals, 4-1, to clinch their first Western Division title in the organization's 19-year history.

September 26, 1975 — Fleetfooted Mickey Rivers set a club record for stolen bases in a season with 70 as he swiped second and then third in the first inning against the Oakland A's.

September 27, 1973 — Nolan Ryan pitched 11 innings, striking out 11 in the process, in posting a 5-4 win over the Minnesota Twins. In fanning 11, Ryan passed Sandy Koufax's major league record of 382 K's in a single season. Victim No. 383 for Ryan was Minnesota's Rich Reese, who struck out swinging in the 11th.

September 30, 1984 — California Angels right-hander Mike Witt forever etched his name in the baseball record books as he became one of only 13 pitchers in history to throw a perfect game, mowing down all 27 Texas Rangers he faced in a 1-0 victory. Witt, who struck out 10, got pinch-hitter Marv Foley to ground out second-to-first for the final out.

OCTOBER

October 1, 1970 — With a 2-for-3 performance on the final day of the season, Alex Johnson became the first — and only — Angel ever to win an American League batting title as he edged Boston's Carl Yastrzemski, .3289 to .3286, to capture the crown. Faced with the task of collecting two hits in no more than three at-bats vs. the Chicago White Sox, Johnson complicated the assignment by grounding out his first time up. However, he singled on his next two trips, the latter to deep third base.

October 2, 1982 — Fred Lynn supplied the winning hit — a two-run homer into the right field seats in the fifth inning — and Dave Goltz turned in some clutch relief work — one run over 4 1/3 innings — as California edged the Texas Rangers, 6-5, to take its second Western Division title.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

The rare occasions when a team schedules a special day to retire a player's uniform number lend credence to the importance of the event . . . Less than 30 "retired" uniform numbers exist in the history of the American League . . . California staged such a date on October 3, 1982 . . . However this particular honoree was different from all the others . . . He never hit a home run, he never drove in a run and he never won a game for the Angels . . . Nonetheless, the esteem the players held for Gene Autry was never more evident that afternoon when the team, en masse, presented the Angels' Chairman of the Board with uniform No. 26 — symbolic as the 26th man on the club . . . The affection displayed by the players remains the same today . . . From Manager Gene Mauch to the clubhouse attendant, they all want to win a pennant for the Cowboy . . . Autry's appeal has not been restricted to the world of baseball . . . On the contrary, his fame is global . . . He has been described as an American institution whose humanitarian acts have won him a revered spot in the hearts of people everywhere . . . During a career which has spanned more than 50 years in the entertainment industry, Autry has been the recipient of numerous awards ranging from an "Honorary Brigadier General" in the California Air National Guard's 146th Tactical Airlift Wing to an "Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree" from Pepperdine University . . . Autry's career has encompassed all facets of the business — from radio and recording artist to motion picture cowboy star, television star, broadcast executive and major league baseball team owner of the California Angels . . . Among his plentiful career achievements are: 93 films, 2,000 recordings, 300 of which he wrote himself and over 40 million records sold . . . Autry has enjoyed his share of "firsts" . . . He received the first Gold Record ever awarded (Autry totaled nine Gold Records overall) . . . He was also awarded the first Platinum Record and he became the first star to endorse a product — a mail-order guitar . . .Autry is an individual who prefers a down-to-earth style of living, treasures friendships and has an almost uncanny knack for being able to deal successfully with individuals on all levels . . . His current holdings include ownerships of five radio stations — KMPC, Los Angeles; KVI and KPLZ, Seattle; WCXI and WTWR in Detroit; television station KAUT in Oklahoma City and the Angels . . . Autry also owns a music publishing company, a ranch in California and the Gene Autry Hotel in Palm Springs . . . He was elected to the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville in 1969 and has served on its Board of Directors for many years . . . The following year Autry was elected to the Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame . . . In 1977 he was appointed to the National Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame . . . All of which isn't too bad for a native of Tioga, Texas, population just under 500 . . . Autry was raised on the Oklahoma side of the Red River where as a teenager, he became a telegrapher . . . A chance meeting with Will Rogers led Autry to pursue a radio career which eventually led to Hollywood in 1934 . . . He was voted top box office western star for eight consecutive years and three times was among the Top 10 stars of all categories, placing fourth in popularity behind Mickey Rooney, Spencer Tracy and Clark Gable . . . His radio show "Melody Ranch" was a weekend listening tradition for more than 16 years on CBS . . . As television became more prominent, Autry was quick to enter the medium . . . He became the first major motion picture star to make the transition and to produce and star in a series made exclusively for television — "The Gene Autry Show" . . . In the winter of 1960-61, Autry attended baseball's major league meetings in St. Louis in search of a team to broadcast . . . He wound up not only with a club to offer baseball on KMPC, but also found himself the baseball owner of the expansion Los Angeles Angels . . . Today Autry remains active in overseeing his investments . . . When leisure time is available, he and wife Jackie, relax in a spacious ranch home in Studio City and at their residence at the Gene Autry Hotel grounds in Palm Springs.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the line-up cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

MANAGER

3 GENE WILLIAM MAUCH

AGE: 59 BORN: 11-18-25 in Salina, KS RESIDES: Rancho Mirage, CA HT.: 5-10 WT.: 175 BATTED & THREW: Right APPOINTED: 10-16-84

GENE MAUCH, saying his "enthusiasm and excitement" have been rekindled, returns for a second term as manager of the California Angels . . . "I don't know what all the ingredients are to manage in the majors, but I do know you can't do it without enthusiasm and excitement, and I have that again. I'm not just happy about the way I feel, I'm grateful." . . . Mauch puts on a uniform following a two-year absence from the field. During that time he remained with the Angels organization in the capacity of Director of Player Personnel.

Mauch's primary strength is that of a strategist . . . "I consider defense the manager's domain. It's always stressed on my clubs. The players make their money on offense, so they're going to give that to you anyway. It's no different than in other sports. All you hear about in football is defense, defense, defense. You hear (Los Angeles Rams coach) John Robinson talk, he'll talk about defense. You hear (Los Angeles Lakers coach) Pat Riley talk, it's about defense. It's just as important in baseball. Defense is the work of the game. The offense is the fun of the game, but players can have as much fun playing defense if they work at it enough."

In 1982, Mauch guided the Angels to their second Western Division title, winning 93 games in the process, most in club history . . . The division title was the first of Mauch's career . . . He was originally appointed the Halos' skipper May 28, 1981 . . . Mauch-led teams have won a total of 1,646 games — ninth on the all-time list . . . He has managed a total of 3,457 games — ninth on the all-time list and 32 games shy of tying Hall of Famer Joe McCarthy for the No. 8 position . . . Mauch is also beginning his 24th year of managerial service. He is currently tied with Hall of Famer Walter Alston (23 years) for the No. 8 spot in that category.

Mauch holds the major league record for the longest managerial stint without a pennant winner (22 years). It should be pointed out, however, that much of Mauch's tenure was spent rebuilding clubs — the Philadelphia Phillies in the early 1960's, the expansion Montreal Expos and the Minnesota Twins . . . Despite the omission of pennants, Mauch's efforts earned him National League Manager of the Year honors on three occasions — 1962, 1964 and 1973. The first two awards were gained at Philadelphia, while the latter was accomplished at Montreal.

Mauch started his professional career as a shortstop in the Brooklyn Dodgers' organization in Durham, NC in 1943 . . . He played for six major league clubs — the Dodgers, Pirates, Cubs, Braves, Cardinals and Red Sox from 1944 through 1957, posting a .239 career batting average . . . He accepted his first managerial post with the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association in 1953 at the age of 28 . . . Mauch resigned as manager of the Twins August 24, 1980 and remained out of baseball until joining the Angels as Director of Player Personnel February 12, 1981 . . . He resigned as skipper of the Angels October 22, 1982 due to personal reasons. He was later rehired as the club's Director of Player Personnel September 14, 1983 . . . Mauch is the 10th manager in the Angels' 25-year-history.

49 ELWOOD ROBERT CLEAR

44 REGINALD MARTINEZ JACKSON OF

AGE: 38, turns 39 on May 18 BORN: 5-18-46 in Wyncote, PA RESIDES: Oakland, CA HT.: 6-0 WT.: 208 BATS & THROWS: Left ACQUIRED: Selected in re-entry draft and signed, 1-22-82 SIGNED THRU: 1985 MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 17 yrs., 26 days

1984 SEASON: Reggie Jackson had something to prove in 1984 . . . He did it — and there was some irony involved — by becoming the 13th player in baseball history to hit 500-or-more home runs . . . Jackson's historic clout, off Kansas City's Bud Black on the first pitch in the bottom of the 7th inning last September 17 at the Big A, occurred exactly 17 years after No. 1, also at the Big A . . . Four days later attained another rarity by collecting a sacrifice bunt — his first since September 2, 1972 — as Angels rallied to score a 5-4 come-from-behind triumph against Texas . . . Reached double figures in home runs for 17th consecutive season . . . Erased a dismal 1983 (.194, 14 HR, 49 RBI) with a fast April get-away . . . Connected for five homers to complement 19 RBI . . . Produced a .309 June (25/81), adding three more home runs . . . On September 3 at Cleveland, became 25th player in the game to collect 1,500-or-more RBI . . . Eighth-inning single drove home a pair to move him into select group . . . Reggie belted 10th lifetime grand slam off New York's Dennis Rasmussen at the Big A May 28 . . . Snapped a mild slump in August with a barrage of base hits in the second week of September — including home run Nos. 498 and 499 (off the Chisox' Floyd Bannister and Tom Seaver) . . . Both homers proved to be game-winning hits, giving Reggie total of 10 — his highwater mark since 1980 when he totaled 17 . . . By way of note, the other dozen members of the "500 Home Run Club" are all Hall of Famers, with the exception of Willie McCovey, who isn't eligible for voting until 1986.

MVP YEAR — 1973: Dominated A.L. . . . Led circuit in runs scored (99), home runs (32) slugging percentage (.531), runs batted in (117) and game-winning hits (18) . . . Set career highs in average (.293) and hits (158) . . . Hit two homers in a game on five occasions . . . Had four-or-more RBI in a game five times . . . Tied a World Series record with four hits in extra-inning Game No. 2 . .. Hit .310 as A's defeated New York Mets for second World title . . . Voted A.L. MVP, World Series MVP, Player of Year by THE SPORTING NEWS.

MR. OCTOBER: Has appeared in 71 post-season games . . . While with A's Jackson-led teams appeared in five Championship and three World Series . . . With Yankees, four Championship and three World Series and with Angels one Championship Series . . . Owns .357 average with 10 home runs and 24 RBI in five World Series . . . Has 18 post-season home runs . . . Tied with Mickey Mantle for lead in this category . . . Hit three home runs in sixth and final game of 1977 World Series vs. Dodgers (five homers in series) . . . Three homers came on successive pitches . . . Finished Series with .450 mark . . . Established Championship series records for most series played (10), most times on winning clubs (6), most series one or more hits (9), most series played all games (9), most games total series (39), most at-bats, total series (137), most runs batted in, total series (18).

CAREER: Reggie has averaged 30 home runs and 89 RBI for each of his 17 major league campaigns . . . One of a quartet of players to hold distinction of hitting 400-or-more home runs and stealing 200-or-more bases . . . Hank Aaron, Willie Mays and Frank Robinson are others achieving feat . . .Listed among top 25 on all-time lists in RBI, extra-base hits and two-or-more homers in a game (see following tables) . . . Enjoyed most productive game at Boston, June 14, 1969 when he drove in 10 runs via two doubles, two homers and a single . . . Drove in four more next day with double, triple and homer . . . The 10 and 14 RBI, respectively, were each one short of major league marks, both held by Tony Lazzeri of Yankees in 1936 . . . Has led or tied for home run lead four times.

PERSONAL/MISC.: In survey conducted by Benton & Bowles Advertising Agency evaluating 25 top athletes as endorsers, Reggie was the most familiar athlete . . . Currently advertising products for Nabisco, Wienerschnitzel, Panasonic, Remco Toys, Victory Optical, Pony Shoes and handling TV assignments for ABC Network . . . Collects rare cars . . . Very active in charitable work . . . Served as National Chairman for Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (Lou Gehrig disease) . . . Selected Honorary Big Brother of the Year by Big Brothers and Big Sisters program.

1984: The 41-year-old Tommy John, with the nine-year-old arm, pitched like a youngster during the first-half last year . . . In first 11 starts through June 2 held opponents to three-or-less earned runs . . . Despite the solid performance, had only a 3-3 record to match a 2.48 ERA . . . At the All-Star break had completed four starts including a 4-0 whitewash of Boston for first shutout as an Angel and 45th of his 20-year career . . . The shutout placed him in a tie with Robin Roberts and Whitey Ford for 30th place on the all-time list . . . Achieved a career milestone on May 1, restricting Oakland to a pair of hits through eight innings to defeat the A's, 2-1 and record lifetime win No. 250 . . . Dropped five of seven verdicts in second half before being shifted to bullpen duty . . . Worked two scoreless innings in relief of Bruce Kison at Cleveland Sept. 5 to mark first appearance out of the pen since July 31, 1982 while a member of the Yankees at Texas . . . Registered career strikeout No. 2000 when he caught New York's Omar Moreno looking in the fifth inning, May 18 . . . In an effort to improve his performance, solicited the aide of former teammate Mike Marshall during winter to help with John's mechanics.

ALL-TIME LISTS: He ranks among top 35 in five major pitching categories — tied for 12th in starts (598), 30th in innings pitched (4122), tied for 30th in shutouts (45), 32nd in victories (255) and 35th in strikeouts (2030).

THE OPERATION: Ruptured a ligament in his left elbow on July 1, 1974 . . . Underwent surgery in September with tendon from right forearm used in reconstruction of left elbow . . . Operation performed by Dr. Frank Jobe and was first of its kind on an athlete . . . Missed '75 season . . . Through extensive rehabilitation program was able to pitch again in '76 . . . Fashioned 10-10 record to earn "Comeback Player of Year" and also coveted "Fred Hutchinson Award" . . . Since injury has posted 131 wins.

CAREER: Is one of eight men in Baseball history to win 20-or-more games in both leagues . . . Was 20-7 for 1977 Los Angeles Dodgers and recorded two 20-plus years with New York Yankees — 21-9 in 1979 and 22-9 in '80 . . . Others to accomplish feat are Jerry Koosman, Andy Messersmith, Gaylord Perry, Ferguson Jenkins, Joe McGinnity, Jesse Tannenhill and Al Orth . . . Owns 6-3 record in post-season play (0-1 in Division Championship Series, 4-1 in League Championship Series and 2-1 in World Series) . . . Has been selected to four All-Star teams . . . Recorded first victory by a pitcher in A.L. game at Anaheim Stadium . . . Pitched Chicago White Sox to 3-1 win at Big A, April 19, 1966.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Very active in charitable work . . . Has hosted Tommy John Celebrity Invitational Golf Classic (Yorba Linda Country Club, CA) for past eight years with proceeds directed to Childrens Hospital of Los Angeles for cancer research . . . Works with International Save-A-Child movement, March of Dimes and Orange County Chapter of March of Dimes . . . Has authored two books "The Tommy John Story" and with wife Sally, "The Sally and Tommy John Story" . . . Latter book recounts qualities of love and caring and how their Christian faith helped sustain them through near tragedy when son Travis (3-years-old at the time) fell 27 feet from an apartment window on August 13, 1981 and survived 14 days in a coma.

GARY GEORGE PETTIS — OF

AGE: 26, turns 27 on April 3 BORN: 4-3-58, Oakland, CA RESIDES: Pomona, CA HT.: 6-1 WT.: 159 BATS: Switch THROWS: Right ACQUIRED: Selected 6th round in January, 1979 free agent draft SIGNED THRU: 1985 MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 1 yr., 46 days

1984 SEASON: Not since Mickey Rivers set a club standard of 70 stolen bases in 1975 have the Angels had a baserunner the likes of Gary Pettis . . . In rookie season Pettis stole 48 bases — fourth highest total in the American League . . . Stole two bases in a game five times and was successful three times out of every four attempts . . . Defensively, bordered on the sensational His over-the-shoulder catches a la Willie Mays, his fence-crashing grabs and sheer speed in running down line drives for seemingly uncatchable outs became almost routine rather than exception . . . Inserted defensively in the ninth inning of a game vs. New York on May 30, made three outstanding catches to preserve 6-5 Angels victory . . . The fleet centerfielder ran into a snag at the plate . . . Looked upon as the would-be catalyst of the Angels' attack, was unable to make contact on a consistent basis . . . Finished with a .227 average (115 strikeouts) . . . Most of switch-hitter's problems stemmed from batting lefthanded (.212 compared to .254 as a righthanded batter) . . . During winter, the Angels sent Pettis, along with newly appointed hitting instructor Moose Stubing, to work with former National League batting champion Harry Walker . . . Walker spent 10 days with Pettis concentrating on hitting the ball to the left side.

CAREER: Pettis has averaged 45 stolen bases per year in each of his six seasons . . . On final at bat in '82 collected first major league hit — game-winning home run off Texas righthander Bobby Darwin . . . Recalled from Edmonton (Pacific Coast League) Sept. 8, 1983 . . . Led Angels with eight stolen bases in 11 attempts . . . Hit inside-the-park home run off Toronto's Luis Leal at Big A, Sept. 27 . . . Finished '83 with 11-game hitting streak — .362 (17/47).

ANGELS NO-HITTERS LOG

SEPTEMBER 30, 1984

ARLINGTON, TX — Righthander MIKE WITT joined an elite list when he became one of only 13 pitchers to hurl a perfect game in major league history.

Witt's 1-0 victory over the Texas Rangers was the Angels' first no-hitter since June 1, 1975. It was the seventh no-hitter in club history and the team's first "perfect" game.

Witt, who at age 24 became the fourth youngest hurler ever to throw a perfect game, took one hour and 49 minutes to accomplish his task. Of his 94 pitches, 70 were strikes and only four balls found their way to the outfield. He also struck out 10 to run his season total to 196 (third best in the American League).

Witt had two anxious moments: a 3-0 count to Ranger second baseman Wayne Tolleson with one out in the seventh inning (Tolleson eventually grounded out to second base); and a deep fly ball off the bat of Larry Parrish to leadoff the eighth.

Witt got pinch-hitter Marv Foley on a ground out to second base to end the game.

"I used to think no-hitters were thrown by guys who won 20 games and struck out 300 men," said Witt. "I have to think now that I may be in that class.

JUNE 1, 1975

ANAHEIM, CA—Righthander NOLAN RYAN tied a major league record by authoring his fourth career no-hitter in defeating the Baltimore Orioles, 1-0, before a crowd of 18,492 at Anaheim Stadium.

Ryan equaled Sandy Koufax' major league record and became the first American League pitcher to accomplish the feat. In fanning nine O's, Ryan ran his total strikeouts to 53 for the four no-hit efforts.

Third baseman Dave Chalk drove in the only run of the game with a third-inning base hit.

It was the first no-hitter against Baltimore since BO BELINSKY blanked the Birds, 2-0, on May 5, 1962.

SEPTEMBER 28, 1974

ANAHEIM, CA—Making his 41st and final start of the year, NOLAN RYAN threw the third no-hitter of his career by defeating Minnesota, 4-0, before 10,872 fans at the Big A.

Ryan fanned the side in the first two innings en route to a total of 15 strikeouts. He tied Bob Feller's American League standard and became the fifth pitcher in major league history to record three no-hitters in a career. Only Sandy Koufax, with four no-hitters, has more.

Ryan threw the first no-hitter against Minnesota since Vida Blue blanked the Twins on September 21, 1970. Morris Nettles supplied the offensive support by driving in three runs.

On the other hand, Ryan walked seven in the first five innings and eight in the game to make him the first major league pitcher to walk more than 200 batters in a season since Bob Feller in 1938.

JULY 15, 1973

DETROIT, MI—NOLAN RYAN became the fifth pitcher in major league history to record two no-hitters in a single season when he pitched the California Angels to a 6-0 victory against Detroit before 41,411 fans at Tiger Stadium.

Two months ago to the day Ryan earned his first no-no by blanking Kansas City, 3-0 at Royals Stadium. The last pitcher to win two nine-inning no-hitters in the same season was Virgil Trucks of the Tigers in 1952.

Throwing even harder than he did at Kansas City, Ryan had registered 16 strikeouts at the end of seven innings. Bob Feller's A.L. record of 18 and the major league standard of 19 held by Tom Seaver and Steve Carlton were within reach. But Ryan was deprived of any strikeout record after his arm stiffened while the Angels took 30 minutes to bat around for five runs in the eighth inning. He finished with 17 strikeouts and four walks.

MAY 15, 1973

KANSAS CITY, MO—NOLAN RYAN became the first righthander in Angels history to throw a no-hitter when he defeated Kansas City, 3-0, at Royals Stadium before a crowd of 12,205.

The Refugio, TX native fanned one or more batters in each inning except the fifth. He finished with 12 strikeouts and walked three.

He was so overpowering that the left side of the Angels' defense barely had an opportunity to field a ball. Third baseman Al Gallagher didn't make a play; left fielder Vada Pinson didn't handle a ball while shortstop Rudy Meoli had one routine grounder and a tough catch to save the no-hitter.

Pinch hitter Gail Hopkins almost collected a hit, stroking a looping liner into short left only for Meoli to race out and make an over-the-shoulder catch.

LOS ANGELES, CA—Rookie BO BELINSKY became the first pitcher in Angels history to author a no-hit, no-run game when he blanked Baltimore, 2-0, before a Dodger Stadium crowd of 15,886.

The 25-year-old southpaw, drafted for $25,000 from the Baltimore organization, became the first rookie to achieve the feat since another Bo—Bobo Holloman—turned the trick with the old St. Louis Browns in 1953.

Belinsky faced only nine batters over the last three innings. He pitched to 34 Orioles, striking out nine, walking four and hitting a pair. It was his fourth victory in as many major league starts.

ANAHEIM STADIUM

Anaheim Stadium was built with "Convenience, Comfort and Courtesy," in mind. Narrow foul territory areas and quickly rising decks keep spectators on top of the action. Gradually inclined ramps and escalators, wide aisles and seats and helpful ushers make entrance and egress as uncomplicated as possible.

Three surrounding freeways, 26 entrance lanes from three streets and 28 exit lanes with wide adjacent surface streets make Anaheim stadium one of the most accessible in baseball. Completion of the Orange "57" Freeway has made a significant improvement as did the Santa Ana Freeway overpass on State College Boulevard, which was completed in 1977.

Major stadium tenants include the Angels and the Rams. Both the Angels and Rams have signed 35-year contracts through 2001 and 2015, respectively.

Anaheim Stadium was completed in 1966 by the Del E. Webb Company after an August 31, 1964 groundbreaking at a cost of $24 million, including the giant A-frame scoreboard which rises 230 feet. The board was the source of the stadium's nickname — "The Big-A."

The Big-A underwent construction in 1979 for additional seating to accommodate the Rams. The facility, now completely enclosed, seats 65,158 for baseball and more than 70,000 for football. The seating capacity prior to construction was 43,250.

A video scoreboard, built by Stewart-Warner (who created the Big-A board), was installed in 1980 on the facade of the left-center field roof. The Big-A board has been preserved and moved to the edge of the parking lot adjacent to the Orange Freeway behind the right field area.

A total of 106 executive style boxes, ranging in price from $16,000 to $50,000, were added to surround the rear of the Club Level. In addition to the Stadium Club, there are several private dining areas designed for groups — the Extra-Inning Club, the Grand Slam Room, the Top of the Big A and the Football Press Box.

The Football Press Box is located on the View Level while the Baseball Press Box is on the Club Level.

Additionally, a new sound system and metal halide lamps were installed.

ANGELS IN CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

1982

California participated in its second American League Championship Series in the past four years and fell one game short of gaining a berth in the World Series.

Record attendance and exciting action punctuated the ALCS.

A crowd of 64,406 — top single game attendance in ALCS history — watched Tommy John toss a complete game, 8-3 win, in Game 1. Don Baylor's two-run triple in the fourth inning gave the Angels a lead they never relinquished. Baylor collected five RBI in the game.

Bruce Kison followed John's outing with a route-going performance in Game 2, winning a 4-2 verdict. Kison restricted the hard-hitting Brewers to five hits. Tim Foli's RBI single put the Angels ahead for keeps in the second inning. Bob Boone accounted for a pair of RBI with a squeeze bunt and a sacrifice fly while Reggie Jackson's 18th home run in post season competition — tying Mickey Mantle — accounted for the other run.

The series shifted to County Stadium for the final three games.

Don Sutton, with late inning relief help from Pete Ladd, pitched the Brewers to a 5-3 win in Game 3. Cecil Cooper doubled home the game-winning RBI in the fourth inning.

Milwaukee tied the series winning Game 4, 9-5 with the Brewers enjoying their best offensive game of the set, collecting nine hits, including a three-run homer by Mark Brouhard. John, working on three days rest, recepted for the loss.

The Angels clung to a 3-2 lead into the seventh inning of the final game only to have Cooper line a two-run single off Luis Sanchez giving the Brewers a berth in the World Series.

Fred Lynn, with 11 hits in 18 at bats (.611) was selected the Most Valuable Player in the ALCS.

The series attendance of 284,691 accounted for another ALCS standard.

Behind the five-hit pitching of Frank Tanana, the Angels defeated Kansas City, 4-1, on September 25, 1979 to clinch the team's first West Division title. California concluded the year with a 88-74 record and a berth against East winner Baltimore (102-57) in the ALCS.

The Orioles won three of four games to advance to the World Series, but the triumph wasn't an easy one. In Game No. 1, pinch hitter Johnny Lowenstein hit a three-run homer off John Montague in the bottom of the 10th inning to give the Birds a 6-3 triumph.

After spotting the O's a 9-1 lead in Game No. 2, California battled back to narrow the gap to one run in the ninth inning and had the bases loaded with two outs before succumbing, 9-8.

A ninth-inning double by Larry Harlow gave the Angels a 4-3 come-from-behind victory in Game No. 3 at Anaheim Stadium, before O's southpaw Scott McGregor completely throttled the Angels with a six-hit, 8-0 triumph to win the Championship Series in Game No. 4.

A bit of baseball history occurred on Sept. 17 at the Big A when REGGIE JACKSON connected on a BUD BLACK fastball for his 500th career home run . . . Royals pitching held California to only five home runs and a .185 average . . . JUAN BENIQUEZ hit .310 while BRIAN DOWNING produced the most RBI with nine . . . MIKE WITT was 2-0 and 1.66 ERA in three starts . . . RON ROMANICK won two of three decisions to match a 1.11 ERA . . . DEAN CHANCE — ANGELS' CY YOUNG WINNER

Dean Chance, 23, became the Angels' first 20-game winner (20-9) in 1964 and the youngest player in history to win the Cy Young Award, emblematic of the outstanding pitcher in the major leagues. Chance had the lowest ERA in the majors (1.65) and pitched 11 shutouts — five by 1-0 scores, to tie a major league record.

RYAN CLOCKED AT 100.9 MPH

Nolan Ryan registered the fastest recorded clocking of a pitched baseball on Aug. 20, 1974 when he was timed at 100.9 miles per hour during a game against the Detroit Tigers.

The clocking was made by scientists from Rockwell International, who used an infra-red radar device and a technique known as the Doppler Frequency Shift.

Ryan was clocked again on Sept. 7, 1974 vs. the Chicago White Sox. His fastest pitch that night was 100.8 mph.

ATTENDANCE

The relationship between the Angels and their fans remains in full bloom.

For the fifth time in the last six years Angels' fans topped the two million mark in home attendance when a total of 2,402,997 enthusiasts entered Big A turnstiles. Only during the strike-abbreviated season of 1981 did the Angels fail to hit the coveted two-million figure.

California has attracted an average home attendance of 2,337,970 during the six-year stretch — tops in the American League.

In 1982 the Angels set an all-time A.L. record attendance of 2,807,360 and established a club mark of 1,897,660 for attendance away from home.

California enjoyed its best single game home attendance figure when 64,406 witnessed the opening A.L.C.S. game at Anaheim Stadium on October 5, 1982 (vs. Milwaukee).

During the ensuing 1983 campaign the top two regular season crowds in club history were set when 63,132 watched the Halos host Kansas City, July 4, and 63,073 viewed the April 23 game against Baltimore.

SCOUT OF THE YEAR
NICK KAMZIC

Considering this is the Angels' 25th Anniversary, Kamzic's selection would appear to be appropriate since he has been a member of the scouting staff since 1961. Kamzic was responsible for signing outfielder Rick Reichardt and pitcher Marty Pattin. He is also responsible for the Angels' last four June first-round draft picks — shortstop Dick Schofield, pitcher Bob Kipper, outfielder Mark Doran and catcher Erik Pappas. Nick and his wife Marie have two children and reside in Evergreen Park, Illinois.

ANGELS ORIGINAL PLAYER DRAFT

The Angels drafted a total of 28 players from the existing American League clubs on December 14, 1960. Owners of the new Los Angeles and Washington clubs as well as their recently appointed front office and field bosses—General Manager Fred Haney and Manager Bill Rigney of the Angels and General Manager Ed Doherty and Manager Mickey Vernon of the Senators—attended the session held in the league offices.

A price of $75,000 was set on the players to be picked and both of the new clubs were required to select 28. The players were picked by categories, starting with pitchers, then catchers, infielders and outfielders. A toss of the coin determined which club had first choice in each group, and then they alternated. Haney won the toss for three positions—all but for outfielders.

Besides the 28 regular selections by both clubs, Los Angeles bought two players from the special minor league pool at $25,000 apiece and Washington grabbed three. Thus, the Angels paid $2,150,000 for their 30 players and the Senators shelled out $2,175,000 for their 31 in the unprecedented distribution.

Following is the order in which the Angels players were selected:

1. Eli Grba, p, NY
2. Jerry Casale, p, BOS
3. Duke Maas, p, NY
4. Tex Clevenger, p, MIN
5. Bob Sprout, p, DET

16. Gene Leek, if, CLEV
17. Jim Fregosi, if, BOS
18. Bob Cerv, of, NY
19. Ken Hunt, of, NY
20. Jim McAnany, of, CHI

Note: Following the selections, Wilson notified the Angels and Cleveland that he intended to retire from the game. As a result, his selection was canceled several weeks later and the Indians sent pitcher Ted Bowsfield to the Angels as a replacement.

DETERMINING AVERAGES AND QUALIFICATIONS

BATTING AND PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings pitched.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player may not have spent more than 45 days on a major league roster between Opening Day and September 1 AND may not have exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched at major league level to qualify as a Rookie.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at bat (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING MAGIC NUMBER: To figure "Magic Number" in pennant race, compute the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

SAVE RULE (10:20): Credit a pitcher with a save when he is the finishing but not the winning pitcher, and when he qualifies under ONE of the following conditions—(1) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or (2) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base or at bat, or on deck; or (3) he pitches effectively for at least three innings regardless of his team's lead.

SPRING TRAINING

Gene Autry Park was officially dedicated last March 1. The three-diamond complex in Mesa, AZ serves as the spring home of the California Angels and later, for the club's minor league affiliates. In addition, the Angels' Arizona Instructional League entry plays its home games at Gene Autry Park.

California is the only major league team to have two spring training sites. The Angels remain headquartered in the Mesa area through the early portion of Cactus League play (California has a dozen games scheduled in Arizona) before switching sites to Palm Springs, CA and the start of a 13-game schedule at Angels Stadium.

The Angels' varsity is scheduled to open camp when pitchers and catchers report February 22. The team remains in Arizona through March 24. Actually, half the team will remain in Arizona March 23-24 while the other half moves to Palm Springs to play a two-game set with the NCAA Champion Cal State Fullerton Titans beginning March 23.

Since the inception of the organization in 1961, California has played at Angels Stadium. The facility was formerly called the Polo Grounds until switching to the current name in 1964.

On December 19, 1965, the Angels signed an agreement to hold spring training in Holtville, CA, located approximately 10 miles east of El Centro. The club spent from 10 days to two weeks at the newly built four-diamond grounds from 1966 through 1979 before returning on a full-time basis to Palm Springs in 1980.

In 1982 and 1983 California divided spring headquarters between Casa Grande, AZ and Palm Springs.

The Angels defeated the Chicago Cubs, 8-3, in the club's first exhibition game on March 11, 1961 at the Polo Grounds.
